

The images above show how much more active a 15-year-old nondrinker's brain is (top) than a drinker's brain (bottom).

Image courtesy of Susan Tapert, University of California