Lead poisoning hazard leads to toy product recall

The Kane County Health Department is urging residents who may have purchased certain Fisher-Price products to keep them away from children. Fisher-Price Inc., of East Aurora, N.Y., and the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, announced a voluntary recall of the following consumer products. Consumers should stop using recalled products immediately unless otherwise instructed.

Sesame Street, Dora the Explorer, and other children's toys, totaling about 967,000 units, contain surface paints on the toys could contain excessive levels of lead. Lead is toxic if ingested by young children and can cause adverse health effects. No injuries have been reported.

The recall involves various figures and toys that were manufactured in China between April 19, 2007 and July 6, 2007 and were sold alone or as part of sets. The model names and product numbers for the recalled toys, which are all marked with "Fisher-Price," are listed below. The toys may have a date code between 109-7LF and 187-7LF marked on the product or packaging. The toys have been sold at retail stores nationwide from May 2007 through August 2007 for between $5 and $40.

Consumers should immediately take the recalled toys away from children and contact Fisher-Price at (800) 916-4498 anytime or visit the firm's Web site at www.service.mattel.com
