

Communities join together for Healthy Kids on Oct 12, 2022 for Walk, Bike & Roll to School Day.

Making Kane County Fit for Kids has hosted and supported this event that promotes health and wellness initiatives for 12 years. Over 75 elementary and middle school participated! The goal is that these events will lead to ongoing activities that encourage walking and biking throughout the year! A strong countywide group of sponsors also supported Walk, Bike & Roll to School Day on October 12, 2022.

TITLE Sponsor – ALDI

Making Kane County Fit for Kids applauds Title Sponsor – ALDI, one of America's fastest-growing retailers. Supporting this initiative builds on the Batavia-based company's commitment to helping children and families live healthy lives. "Everything we do at ALDI is focused on having a positive impact on the communities we serve and providing our customers with affordable, accessible healthy food options is a big part of that commitment," stated Laura Branneman, ALDI Divisional Vice President. "ALDI is proud to partner with organizations like Making Kane County Fit for Kids that promote and support kids' health and wellness and help them lead healthy, happy lives."
